AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

Emmy Nomination 2021, Morning Newscast: Hurricane Ida Coverage

On that early morning in late August, New Yorkers woke up to stranded cars, destroyed basements, and news of 13 lives lost. The flash flooding caused by the remnants of Ida devastated our city and was a stark reminder of the reality of climate change. The morning after Ida our team was there for the residents of our city to tell the story and keep them informed on what comes next. We were there as we began to rebuild together after the disaster.

Winner 2021 Deadline Awards: Local TV Spot News, Mornings on 1: Hurricane Idea Coverage

Emmy Nomination 2020 Team Coverage of Tropical Storm Isaias

The worst of Tropical Storm Isaias hit from early morning through early afternoon and so I had the opportunity to once again showcase my ability to keep a proper tone that viewers find comforting, credible and informative. I was nominated with my team for my contributions, along with those reporting in the field.

First Place 2017 Associated Press Club Awards, Best Weathercast

I won an AP award for my coverage of severe weather in Western New York. I won by keeping a level tone that still communicated the severity yet left the consumer informed.

💼 EXPERIENCE

Contract Meteorologist – WeatherPrep LLC, Weather Consulting   9/2021 - Present

WeatherPrep is a meteorological consulting firm that offers witness testimony, forensic reports and prepares tailored forecasts for special events and organizations. I provide detailed weather forecasts and live weather information to event organizers and city agencies during concerts and large events like the New York City Marathon.

Meteorologist – Spectrum News NY1, New York, NY   9/2017 - 9/2022

You should never underestimate the value of getting your day started on the right foot. At NY1, I helped New Yorkers feel prepared for whatever weather the day will bring. Being part of the highest rated morning show in the Five Boroughs, I got to showcase my ability to make weather fun, conversational and compelling.

Prior to working the morning show, I was our evening meteorologist where I helped launch our award winning show, Live at Ten.

Meteorologist – Spectrum News 1, Syracuse, NY   9/2007 - 9/2017

Meteorologist/Reporter - KAUZ, Wichita Falls, TX   9/2006 - 9/2007
